HAROLD HOTZ WINS THE TRIP

Harold K. Hotz, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hotz, is the proud winner of the Tomato Growing Contest, conducted by the Agricultural Department of the University of California, scoring the remarkable percentage of ninety-one.

This bright, energetic and popular High School boy is richly deserving of the prize, and is being warmly congratulated. Harold departed, Thursday morning, joining the other lucky Horticultural Club boys at Berkeley, from whence the start will be made today for the three weeks' transcontinental trip. The fortunate youths will travel as far as New York in a private car.

How Harold made the crop, by which he won the first prize—a trip to Washington, D. C.—is decidedly interesting as recounted by himself to his teachers and classmates, and next week we shall give it space in these columns.

The remaining members of the Agricultural Club are enjoying the fruits of their labors at Davis Farm, where they will be royally and profitably entertained.

Principal M. H. Rowell went to Berkeley yesterday, to bid the boys bon voyage, proud of the fact that a student of the Sonoma Valley Union High School bears the distinction of representing the Banner County on the expedition.

G. H. Hotz also accompanied his son to Berkeley.

MRS. CHELINI PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Lucia Chelini, wife of A. Chelini, a widely known and very highly respected resident of the Sonoma Valley, entered into rest, Friday of last week, death releasing the much-loved wife and mother from an illness of months' duration.

Mrs. Chelini was a native of Italy and aged thirty-eight years. She had resided in this valley for many years, and had drawn around her a large circle of warm friends, who deeply deplore the taking away of the young mother from her three children, two little daughters and a son of tender years. The helpless age of these motherless children renders the death of the devoted young mother inexpressibly sad.

The funeral services were held in the St. Francis Catholic Church, Sunday afternoon, a host of sorrowing friends assembling to follow the remains to their last resting place in the Catholic cemetery. The funeral cortege was one of the longest ever seen in Sonoma, and the floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

ELKS' BALL OCTOBER 24TH

The most brilliant event occurring in many months will be the Grand Ball, which takes place at Union Hall, next Saturday night, and is given under the auspices of the local Elks.

The hall will be beautifully decorated for the occasion, under the direction of Dr. W. B. Hays, who is planning novel and artistic effects.

Fitzgerald's Orchestra, (seven pieces). of San Francisco, has been engaged, insuring superior music, as this orchestra is one of the finest dance musical organizations in the metropolis.

Wm. F. Clewe will officiate as floor manager, having as assistants, R. E. Mullen, "Dal" Emparan and J. F. Picetti. The reception committee is composed of H. F. Bates, Dr. H. W. Gottenberg and L. LaMotte.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

On Saturday evening, Oct. 17, there will be a basket ball game between the High School and the Alumni teams. A very fast game is expected, and it is hoped that every one will come out and see it. Dancing will follow the game. Admission, twenty-five cents.

The same conservative policy which has governed the social functions of the High School, and which has always made them a source of great and unquestioned pleasure to the pupils patrons and friends of the school will be maintained.

The Tomato Growing Contest came to a close last Tuesday. Harold Hotz was the lucky winner of the prize, which consists of a trip to Washington, D. C. The trip will last for about three weeks, and will include stops at the various large cities and places of interest en route. The lucky winner was given an enthusiastic send-off on Thursday.

On Thursday morning, the members of the Boys' Agricultural Club departed for the State Agricultural Farm at Davis. This excursion will extend until Saturday evening, and will include a trip to the University of California at Berkeley. While at Davis, the boys will be the guests of the faculty and students of the Agricultural Farm.

Next Friday evening, Oct. 23d, the basket ball team of this High School will journey to the county seat to play the Santa Rosa High School team.

The Seniors are very proudly displaying their new class pins, which arrived the first of the week. The class pin is a very handsome and artistic one, wrought in dull gold.

War Orphans' Benefit Monday Night at Union Hall---Century Club Concert---Club Notes and Social Doings

(BETSY JANE'S WEEKLY BUDGET OF GOSSIP.)

"I, Hiram W. Johnson, Governor of California, do hereby designate Saturday, the 24th day of October, as Pioneer Mother's Day, to be observed as a tribute to the women of the days of '49, and in furtherance of the work of building a monument which shall grace the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, and remain an enduring testimonial to the honor a grateful State pays their memory.

"It is proposed to raise a fund of twenty-five thousand dollars for this very worthy object, and I wish to join in asking a generous response from all California, in order that the sum may on that day be made adequate."

The above is the text of the proclamation issued by the Hon. Hiram W. Johnson, Governor of California, and the Native Daughters of this greatest State in all the Union are exerting themselves to raise the necessary balance by the date named by the State's chief executive as Pioneer Mother Monument Day.

The patriotic women of Sonoma have been active, too, devoting both afternoon and evening, Friday of last week, to the raising of an offering towards the memorial.

The Tea—

Given by the Woman's Auxiliary, P. P. I. E., at the beautiful home of Mrs. P. N. Stofen, on Friday afternoon of last week, was well attended, and yet the ladies were somewhat disappointed that more were not present to enjoy their hospitality and the pleasing program rendered.

The Spanish duet, given by Mesdames Lulu V. Emparan and J. A. Kinsella, was sung with such luring charm that the ladies were encored again and again, and were called upon later in the evening to repeat the delightful musical gem for the edification of the gentlemen, who dropped in to take tea with the ladies. The sweet voice, which never fails to charm, of Miss Henrietta Weber, was heard to advantage in pretty classic ballads, meriting and winning encores. Miss Hattie Rice, Vineburg's competent piano instructor, also contributed to the afternoon's entertainment well-executed instrumentations.

The Don Theatre Benefit—

In the evening, was fairly well attended, the special reels of pictures presented proving a real attraction. After all, one never tires of the pictured stories, if they are really good and those shown at the Don Friday night of last week were excellent, as is very frequently the case at the popular little playhouse. Messrs. Mohr & Collins endeavor to and succeed in giving satisfying attractions to their patrons.

The combined proceeds of the Afternoon Tea and the evening's entertainment netted the ladies about eighteen dollars—a nice little contribution to the Pioneer Mother Monument Fund.

The Century Club –

Is the name of the new musical club recently organized and known as the Socialist League, with Geo. Leiser, E. G. Perkins and E. Coates as officers The idea of the club is to promote interest in a musical way, and create sociability among young and old by the giving of monthly socials.

The new organization has already a membership of close on to one hundred persons, which will be rapidly augmented now that the fact has been positively established that the club is not political in any sense.

The initial social gathering last month was largely attended, and proved a most enjoyable affair. The second concert and dance is to take place at Union Hall, Wednesday night of next week. As on the previous occasion, a splendid musical program will be rendered, to be followed by dancing, and a general invitation to attend is extended the public.

There will be no admission fee for ladies and children. Admission to members, twenty-cents; admission to non-members. fifty cents.

A Complimentary Party—

To the several young ladies who were hostesses to a large number of friends at a delightfully enjoyable gathering last month, was given in Union Hall, last night, by a number of the young gentlemen who had enjoyed the hospitality of their bevy of fair girl friends.

Last night's affair was managed by Ray Cooper, Emmet Gottenberg, Ralph Busby, Ralph Evans and Frank Knolle, and whom, I am sure, neglected no detail to insure the pleasure of the many invited to attend the function.

Music for the occasion was provided by the Pauli-Gottenberg Orchestra.

The Bridge-Whist Club –

Enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Henry J. Wicker, Thursday afternoon of last week. Roses. a wealth of them, intermingling with trailing asparagus fern, adorned the interior of the beautiful home, and at the close of the afternoon delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. J. A. Landsborough was the lucky prize-winner, receiving a handsome hand-painted plate, which will be a greatly prized addition to her valued collection. Mrs. H. F, Bates was second in the scoring of honors.

A War Orphans' Beuefit—

An evidence of the prevailing of the spirit of altruism among the sympathetic women of Sonoma, is in course of preparation, to take place, Monday evening of the coming week. at Union Hall.

This undertaking in the cause of sweet charity is the thought of Mesdames Henry J. Wicker and E. C. Cassin, and the combined energies and abilities of these very capable women will consumate a social and financial success.

Favorite local talent is to assist in the presentation of pretty tableaux, fancy dances, and the rendition of musical numbers. There is to be dancing after the program, and a nice time generally—a nice time because one will meet so many friends, as everyone, is going,

And why not? The hearts of men and women, throughout the civilized world, pulsate with tenderest pity for the fatherless children across the waters. Who, in our midst. but will gladly help the bereft, whose hands are raised in supplication to the Almighty that their number be not increased?

Reader, dear, don't forget this benefit for the children orphaned through this cruel war is dated for next Monday night, and the price of admission is only twenty-five cents.

The Ladies' Aid Society—

Of the Congregational Church, was entertained by Mrs. Amelia H. Bates, at her comfortable home on Napa street, Tuesday afternoon, over forty ladies assembling to enjoy the hospitality of their valued member and hostess. Reports received were to the effect that arrangements are being rapidly perfected for the bazaar to be held November 6th. The refreshments served were delicious.

The ladies decided to extend their Christmas cheer to the sorrow-laden hearts across the waters, and Mrs. Hannah H. Appleton, president, named Mesdames M. Clewe (chairman), T. M. Price, R. D. Lowell, Annie Cooper and B F Campbell to arrange for a contribution to the Chronicle's Christmas ship. Next week I shall tell you more about this 'Xmas box, which all creeds will gladly help to fill.

Mrs. Charles Lamb—

Who has been a guest at the comfortable suburban home of her brother, O. R. Rufus, for a period of two months, departed for the Bay City, Thursday, from whence, after a couple of days' visit, she returns to her home in Los Angeles. Mrs. Lamb enjoyed these months in her former home town, among her host of old-time friends, and carries away pleasant memories of appreciated social courtesies extended her during her stay.

We will speak in this service on the subject of Temptation. Every one is tempted. There are too many pitfalls in the way of life for any man to go thro' life heedlessly and not fall into one. Some men are always in a hole, and some men escape very well. That is not God's arrangement He made the way of man a safe way, but an evil spirit possesses those who have no God in their tho't, and they dig them for the sake of the more easily plundering their fellows. God never tempted any man. He does not permit the devil to entangle any man until the man wills himself out of God's hands. We do not care whether there is a devil or not. The question is, whether we will let God be our guide and take the Bible as the lamp for our feet. We will show you what it has to say, if you come with us

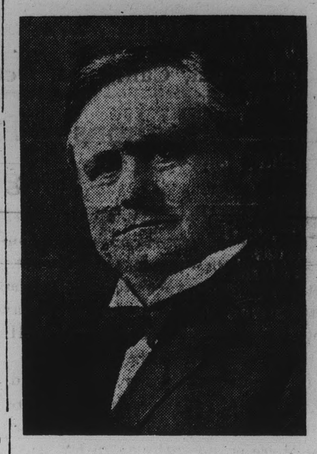
Y. P. S. C. E. will meet at 6:30 p. m. The leader will be Mrs. McAllister. We invite all the young people.

We told our audience what they might see at the drinking fountain, and next Sunday evening we will tell them some other things that are at the town pump. The things are there very evident to the eyes of all. Come and hear a Nature Sermon. It is not a sermon from the Bible, but from your own experience. It is God's unwritten call to everyone. Notice that the service will be at 7:30 p. m.

Visitors in San Francisco

Saturday's morning train bore a number of Sonoma residents to the metropolis, some of whom were to spend the week-end visiting with relatives and friends, and others to enjoy the day shopping. Among others were: City Trustee and Mrs. Chas. B. McDevitt and family, Mesdames C. E. Johnson, S. P. Woodworth, and Pauline McMullin; Misses Helena Clewe, Nancy Bates and Margaret Livernash. On the return trip in the evening, Mrs. A. H. Bates was a passenger, returning from a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Nauman, in San Francisco.

HART MEETING OCTOBER 26TH.



Voters are reminded that Edward H. Hart, Republican nominee for Congress, will address the voters at Union Hall, next Monday night, and the opportunity should not be missed to hear the vital issues of the day discussed by the able gentleman who, from gratifying indications, will represent this district in the Congress.

GOOD ROADS' MEETNG

The Good Roads' Meeting, held at Union Hall, Monday night, under the direction of the Sonoma Valley Chamber of Commerce, was largely attended, and judging from the enthusiasm which prevailed, it was evident that Sonoma Valley is strong for good roads.

Dr. A. M. Thomson, president of the Chamber of Commerce presided, and opened the meeting by introducing Mr. Newton, of San Francisco, who gave an interesting illustrated lecture.

D. D. Wagers, secretary of the Sonoma County Good Roads' Club, discussed the Bonds, and answered many questions bearing on the proposition.

M. B. Johnson, of San Mateo, one of the best posted men on good roads in the State, was the speaker of the evening. Mr. Johnson is a good talker, giving out a fund of general information and advancing many logical reasons why the bonds should be voted.

Sonoma Has Been Honored

By the naming of Mrs. P. N. Stofen a member of the program committee to arrange for the semi-annual meeting of the County Federation of Women's Clubs, to be held in Petaluma, November 14th, in the handsome new club house owned by the progressive women of our neighboring city.

Strong Indications of Republican Congressional Victory.

THE OUTLOOK for Republican success this year, so far as the First Congressional District is concerned, could hardly be better. The evil effects of the new tariff have hit the people in every county in the district apparently very hard and the fact that Congressman Kent voted and advocated the Underwood bill and favors direct taxation of the people is not making him any more votes in Humboldt than it has in Sonoma, and the counties of his district.

In Humboldt County, lumber and dairying are not only the two most important interests, but they are practically the only interests, and when both of them have been struck a struck a severe blow, of course there is no enthusiasm for any one who contributed to the disaster.

According to one of the leading bankers of Euroka, the falling off in the monthly pay rolls around the bay at the lumber camps is about seventy-five thousand dollars since the Underwood bill allowed British Columbian lumber to come in free, and it is easy to understand that a loss in business of that sum is not to be sneered at.

In the dairy interests, the price of butter is falling, and now is about four cents under the figures for last year at this time, and there is a big importation of Australian butter and products that the farmers of Humboldt have to compete with.

The necessity for cutting down the appropriations for the Rivers and Harbors of the country as a result in the reduction of revenue from the tariff bill, too, has hurt Eureka, as it means that the work on her harbor, if not entirely suspended, will be greatly curtailed, and the people are further dissatisfied with the fact that their Congressman not only voted for the bill which made the cutting down of the appropriation necessary, but he is not in Washington now looking after their interests, and they are forced to appeal to the Congressmen from the other districts to help them.

One of the encouraging signs in the Congressional fight is the number of Progressives, even among those who are going to support Governor Johnson, who are going to vote against Kent. They are opposed to his free trade doctrines, as seriously affecting their interests, and they do not like his enormous expenditures at the primaries in an effort to secure all the nominations, especially when he says he does not approve of party, and finally there is a good deal of disapproval of his contribution of five thousand dollars to the Heney campaign.

So far as the recount of the Kent votes has progressed, it shows that the mistakes that have been made have been in tallying his vote in the wrong columns, but in many instances he has been credited with votes under the Progressive head, which belong under the Democratic or Republican, and it looks now as though he did not have votes enough to secure the Progressive nomination, if they had been properly counted and credited. The question has, therefore, arisen, if it should prove that Winfield Scott Riley, the Progressive candidate, had more votes than Kent he will be nominated notwithstanding the fact that he made no contest, and it is the Kent contest against the Democratic candidate, Meldon, which will have disclosed his election. There is a very interesting point that may have to be settled by the courts.

Hart, in traveling around this county, has not visited a single place where he has not been informed by former Progressives that they will support him this year. At Fortuna, one of the strongest Progressive camps in Humboldt county, one of the leading business men, who is an avowed supporter of Governor Johnson, and who has always been a Kent man in the past, voluntarily gave out the information that he was not for Kent this year saying: "I am not going to vote for Kent this year. You are running against two Democrats this campaign Mr. Hart."

The Progressive platform endorsing protection so strongly, many of the members of that party find it difficult to support an out-and out free trader, and besides they say that although they elected Kent last year as a Progressive, he did not once vote with the party in Congress, and even repudiated the party, and they resent his effort to secure their support by writing in their names, and thereby defeating their regular party nominee, Mr. Riley. A careful watch, too, is to be kept this year by the Republican committees on Kent's expenditures, and it will not be possible for him to repeat the wide-open campaign of the primaries.

WHAT OUR NEAR-BY NEIGHBORS ARE DOING.

VINEBURG

A. H. Rubke, our local merchant, transacted business in the Bay City last Saturday.

A carload of red seed oats, containing twenty tons, arrived at Batto's spur on Tuesday morning last.

Mr and Mrs. Henry Gundlach, after a brief visit on Rhinefarm, returned to the metropolis on Monday morning's train.

Sam Caligari, the well-known plumber of Sonoma, is engaged in doing some expert plumbing work at the New Vineburg Inn.

A. W. Lehrke has installed a handsome ice chest in New Vineburg Inn, which for utility and design will equal any in the county.

It is rumored that Marshal Forni contemplates purchasing an automobile. If that be true there will be no more dog fights in peaceful Vineburg.

Harry Brandt, the marine engineer, remarked, the other day, that he loved Seattle, Honolulu and Salena Cruz, but Vineburg was the home for him.

Mrs. Albert Groskopf, after a week's visit with relatives and friends in San Francisco, returned to her home, "Whispering Pines," Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto and family, accompanied by James Small, motored to Rancho Polpula Sunday afternoon and were pleasantly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. John Yenni.

A. W. Lehrke has leased a number of duck ponds south of Schellville and west of the Northwestern Pacific railroad track and will conduct an up-to-date hunting station with motor launches, blinds, decoys, etc.

Prof. Chas. Steffen of San Francisco, band leader and coronet soloist, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alois Tautvetter at "Brookside" on the Hyde tract. The young musician is much pleased with the Sonoma Valley.

Alois Andereggen, head barkeeper at New Vineburg Inn, transacted business in the Exposition City last Wednesday. It is said Al went to the city to visit his intended bride. Well, suppose he did. That's all right.

We understand that manager Jim Modini of the Sonoma Base-Ball Club, will resign his position here to assume the management of the Boston Braves next season. If that be true just bet on the Braves and you will win out.

"Fannie Ferndale" informs us that one of our society men has just found what he has been looking for years, and that is "the idol of his heart," a perfect Venus. Well, Fannie, we hope his Venus has found her perfect Adonis.

Fred. Batto, Jr., better known to his many juvenile friends as "Buddy," will represent the Huichica school district on the excursion to Davis, Sacramento and Berkeley on Thursday. Tomato culture is "Buddy's" special study.

Philip Bill, Jr., foreman of the Hyde vineyard, is a very busy man at present hauling grapes to Sonoma with his fine four-horse wagon, and the way he handles the ribbons is class. If he loses his whip lash a little lady finds it sure.

Fred Hansen, the well-known poultryman of Sonoma, accompanied by Thomas Mullen, visited this section of the valley Sunday. Mr. Hansen will give a grand turkey shoot and raffle at his hatchery near Sonoma on Sunday, November 1st.

Chas. Stornetti, one of our most prosperous and energetic farmers and dairymen, transacted business in the metropolis on Tuesday and Wednesday last. Mr. Stornetti is one of our citizens who helped to make Sonoma Valley what it is today—one of the most prosperous in the county.

EASY JIM.

SCHELLVILLE

Chas. Potter made a brief trip to the metropolis, Wednesday.

C. Bills, of San Francisco, was looking over his property here Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan Beamer and little daughter, Loganell, drove over to Petaluma, Tuesday.

Robt. Kehoe, of San Francisco, spent the fore part of this week with Schellville friends.

Bessie Knight, of San Francisco, had a pleasant week end visit with relatives and friends here.

Jim Small and a party of his friends seemed to be enjoying a joy ride, as they passed through our burg, Sunday last.

After spending a delightful week at the L. Rosser residence, a number of guests departed for their homes, Wednesday morning.

Tom Ryan, of the Bay City, came up here, Thursday of last week, to spend a few days at the home of his sister, Mrs. M. Millerick.

The San Luis school was closed all this week, and Miss Kate Wilber, teacher, spent the time with friends in Santa Rosa and Graton.

J. A. Landsborough, of Locust Grove, returned Wednesday evening, after visiting for a few days with a number of Bay City friends.

Tom Millerick made a business trip to San Francisco the fore part of this week. His brother George, who is attending a veterinary school came up, Sunday, and spent the day at home.

Tony Silva, Jr., suffered the loss of one of his work horses this week. The animal had to be shot, due to an incurable injury to one of its legs.

Mrs. Frank McGill is enjoying a pleasant visit with Mesdames Tom Ryan and G. Binker of the metropolis, and Miss Kate Watt of Oakland.

Mrs. Anton Keiser, of Embarcadero, invited a few lady friends to be her guests at a delightful "coffee party," on Tuesday, and a good time is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Keiser and five sturdy children left, this week, for a nice visit of a few days at the home of the lady's mother, Mrs. J. Stevens, of Oakland.

HAPPY JACK.

GLEN ELLEN

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lane motored to Napa last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilkins visited Sonoma on Tuesday.

Mrs. H. Rubke of Sausalito visited Mrs. C Higgins last Monday.

Mrs. C. J. Poppe is recovering rapidly from the effects of a fall some time ago and will soon be able to be around.

Miss Martha Gordenker, a graduated nurse of San Francisco, is spending a few weeks with her parents at Oak Hamlet.

The Collins moving picture show here Monday evening was greatly enjoyed by those in attendance. A large audience is expected next Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Levy motored to Santa Rosa last Tuesday evening.

The clever posters advertising the Hallowe'en party to be given at Dunbar school house are being noted with much interest. Undoubtedly a large attendance from Glen Ellen can be expected.

The editor asked me for news,
Which was scarce, but I couldn't refuse,
When I scratched my poor head,
These things popped instead
Please put all the blame on the muse.

We have a physician, Dr. Francis,
Whose smile is so sweet it entrances.
Though he gladly supplies us
With pills of all sizes
We'd rather not take any chances.

Says our candidate known as Bill Ashe,
Though as sheriff I'll cut quite a dash.
If you do not elect me,
It will not affect me,
I'll never be hard up for cash.

There is a musician called Jack
And of tunes he has never a lack,
But he plays "By the Sea,
By the Beautiful Sea,
'Til we wish he would give it the sack.

Now, Charles, with your Ford, do not crow,
For though it has caused you no woe,
And has climbed every hill,
And has never stood still,
There is always a first time you know.

I know a dear chap they call "Wallie,"
And he runs his big car like a trolley.
Once a rube cried, "By heck!
If he don't break his neck,
I'll trade off my mare for Ping's Mollie."

Pa Ping is a bit indiscreet,
And the noisiest man you could meet.
He hollers so loud
When he gets in a crowd,
And he hollers so loud on the street.

Do you know how you will be arrayed
If you take in tonight's masquerade,
There is no time to waste
So you better make haste,
It is time that your costume was made.

Come and meet interesting characters like the ones mentioned in this column, at the Masquerade to be given tonight, at Chauvet Hall, Glen Ellen, under the auspices of the Woman's Improvement Club. Good music will be provided, and a good time is promised to all who attend.

Sincerely a
GLEN ELLENITE.

EL VERANO

Mrs. Chas. Spindler was numbered among the many passengers on Saturday morning's south-bound train.

Mrs. Fred Price, of Los Angeles, came up to El Verano to be with her sister, Mrs. A. Block, to assist in nursing their mother. Mrs P. J. Collins, who was seriously burned last Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Perkins have been engaged to furnish music at the El Verano Villa every Saturday and Sunday evenings for those who enjoy dancing at this popular place.

Miss Lucy Block returned home, Sunday last, from Kenwood, where she has been visiting for a week with her sister, Mrs. Max Coutts.

Mr. Fred Sturmer and daughter drove up from the metropolis, on Tuesday, to their beautiful summer home on the Sonoma Vista tract. Miss Sturmer was much pleased with the ride. They came by the way of Petaluma and drove a fine, spirited horse, which Mr. Sturmer will leave here for the convenience of the family when they visit here.

Harry Clement has just returned from Soda Springs, Idaho, driving a distance of thirteen hundred miles. He says, "Sonoma Valley for mine; no more snow storms for me."

Mrs. McReynolds, one of El Verano's competent teachers, has returned from Richmond, where she had been summoned by the illness of her father. She met with a hearty welcome from her pupils, Monday morning.

The Southern Pacific engineers were busy a few days ago, staking off a spur track, to connect with the new lumber yard, of which A. Block is the proprietor. It was found necessary to move the office three feet, in order that the building be off from the eighty-foot street, which will soon be thrown open and graded.

Last Saturday morning, at 5:15 o'clock, the Block household at El Verano was startled by piercing screams from the front room of their cottage, occupied by Mrs. P. J. Collins, mother of Mrs. Albert Block. Mrs. Collins attempted to light a lamp, and her clothing ignited, and in an instant she was enveloped in flames. Very fortunately, help was close at hand and the fire was smothered out by Mr. Block. Dr. Gobar was immediately summoned to attend the aged lady, who was severely burned. She is resting quite comfortably her many friends will be glad to learn.

ADALINE.

Elect Dr. Frank Phillips coroner.

M. J. POWER LOCATES HERE

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parent have disposed of their tailoring business to M. J. Power, recently from London, England, but late of San Francisco.

Mr. Power has already taken possession, and we feel assured he will be accorded the liberal patronage enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Parent. The gentleman comes highly recommended, and makes a specialty of ladies' tailoring and cleaning.

We are pleased to note that Mr. and Mrs. Parent will not remove from this district, their intention in the future being to occupy their ranch above Glen Ellen on the Santa Rosa road. For the present, owing to the critical condition of the health of Mrs. Parent's mother, Mrs. L. Fooshee, the Parents will remain in Sonoma, occupying the Adler cottage, on Second Street West, to which they will remove next week.

Drum Corps Has Banquet.

The members of the Sonoma Drum Corps and a few invited friends enjoyed a tamale supper at Woodman's Hall last Tuesday evening. Cards were played, after which all present done themselves proud at the supper table and a most enjoyable evening was spent. All present speak highly of the fine coffee made by the Drum Corps chief cook.

F. Clewe delivered a new 1915 five-passenger Maxwell touring car to P. Rasmussen one day this week.

L. B. Lawson, expert optician of the Lawson-Rinner Optical Co., Santa Rosa, will be at the Union Hotel, Sonoma, on Thursday, October 22d.

Wm. D. Chambers of Guerneville and Estella L. Bill of this city were granted a marriage license by County Clerk Felt last Thursday.

The rector of the Episcopal church of this city on Sunday, October 4th, baptised Kenneth, Martha and Frederic Scott Price, children of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Scott Price.

Mrs. Wood, widow of the late Rev. C. H. Wood, departed for Berkeley, Wednesday morning, to reside temporarily. Mrs. Wood carries with her the friendship of all who came within her influence.

Fred. Helberg and his sons Fred and Will, of Schellville, have leased the Davidson and Morris ranches, consisting of 125 acres, which will be put in hay. The Helbergs will do all the plowing and harrowing with their Samson tractor.

AN APPEAL TO CHURCHES TO AID PROBATIONERS

The Sonoma County Board of Parole Commissioners met in Santa Rosa in regular monthly session, Monday of last week.

The members of the board as provided by law are District Attorney Clarence F. Lea, Sheriff J. K. Smith and Chief of Police John M. Boyes. Several of the misdemeanor prisoners in the county jail were given probation in response to the showing made in their behalf.

This meeting of the parole board is held monthly, as required by law, for the consideration of applications and recommendations.

The increased desire on the part of the State's prosecutors and judges to parole law-breakers, if a reasonable assurance of keeping good faith is given by offenders, is meeting with widespread approval because of the excellent results.

Probation has been proven to be a solution, in a great measure of the problem of dealing with a certain class of criminals, and is the salvation of many a transgressor whom, as a matter of fact, is not depraved or vicious beyond redemption. It is the humane way to grapple with the great criminal difficulty.

In a copy of last week's Bulletin appeared an appeal to the churches of San Francisco to help the probationers, by Judge Frank Dunne. Undoubtedly many residents of this valley have read this article, but there is an equal number who have not, therefore we shall give it space in the Index-Tribune this week, asking our readers to bestow thoughtful consideration upon a statement recording the wonderful good resulting from probation:

"The plea for the familiar old revival hymn, "Throw Out the Life Line, Throw Out the Life Line," is the slogan of a movement which has just been started in the Hall of Justice.

"Working upon the theory that intelligent Christian treatment is the only thing that will make good citizens out of law breakers, Judge Frank H. Dunne and Probation Officer Nichols are issuing an appeal to the churches of San Francisco to help the probationers.

"In the past three years and a half, Judge Dunne has demonstrated that the probation system is both economical and humane. It has saved thousands of dollars of the taxpayers' money, and from a purely monetary standpoint should be further perfected and applied. The number of wives and children it saves from disgrace, destitution and pauperism; the number of fears replaced with hopes, the number of broken hearts mended—all these are not so easily calculated, but their total is even more important and more significant.

"Judge Dunne finds that practically every man who comes before him for sentence has at some time had a religious affiliation. He thinks that if the church members of various denominations would interest themselves in these men, they could do efficient personal work of great value.

"A meeting of the representatives of all denominations will be held in Judge Dunne's chambers within the next two weeks and those who attend will be asked to devise a definite plan of concerted action, by which practical help may be extended to offenders.

"Probation Officer Nichols has a complete record of all the men who have been given conditional liberty in Judge Dunn's court, and over ninety per cent of them are making good. Of two hundred and seventy-six prisoners convicted in his court up to June 1st last, only twenty-five have violated their probation and all of these have since been placed in prison or industrial school.

"During probation those who made good have earned $112,440. Their care would have cost the State nearly $35,000, and the care of their wives and children, most of whom would have become public charges, would have totaled probably three or four times that sum. In this one court, two hundred and fifty-one men, who would have been branded felons under the old order—who would have gone to the penitentiary for years, and have come out just as they went in or worse—have been given an opportunity to restore themselves to useful citizenship.

"Judge Dunne is thoroughly convinced that many of the men who come before him should not be sent to prison, and he deplores the fact that we are not able to give more intelligent and scientific treatment to offenders.

"'Fifteen years ago men in and out of the profession, on and off the bench, believed that crime came in great waves, and that the only way to prevent it was to impose harsh sentences,' said Judge Dunne. 'Our ideas have changed. We realize that most lawbreakers are defectives, and we know that hospitals, instead of penitentiaries, are what most of them need. I am frequently called upon to sentence a man to prison because the good of the community seems to demand that he be incarcerated, and there is no other place to send him. The surgeon's knife might remove that necessity, but we haven't yet gone far enough to provide that remedy. We need to go a long way back to solve this problem of crime and punishment. Often the son pays the penalty for the act of the father. We need to go back to causes. By the time they reach us, their lives are pretty badly muddled up, and we ask them to pay for things they are not responsible for.

"'On the bench we are just groping along, trying to do the best for the community, and at the same time to save the individual and those dependent upon him from greater degradation,' continued Judge Dunne. 'The probation system is a big step in the right direction, but we need help to make it effective. We need the assistance of the community to help tide the unfortunate ones over the worst places and give them a chance to gain a footing.'"

An Enjoyable Trip

Mr. and Mrs. A. Legallet, who have recently returned from Europe, and Max Levillain and daughter, Miss Antoinette, of San Francisco, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. Froment. On Sunday the Froments entertained their friends on a motor trip, the party comprising Mr. and Mrs. Legallett, Mr. and Mrs. Froment, Misses Antoinette Levillain, Antoinette, Eugenie, and Marguerite Froment; Messrs. Max Levillain and Julius Lemoine. The Petrified Forest, Healdsburg, Santa Rosa and other places of interest were visited, the party covering a distance of one hundred and three miles. They report an enjoyable trip, and are ready for just such another in the near future.

"Prohibition will work great injury to the cause of temperance. It is a species of intemperance within itself, for it goes beyond the bounds of reason in that it attempts to control a man's appetite by legislation and in making crimes out of things that are not crimes. A prohibition law strikes a blow at the very principal on which our government was founded."
